From the N. O. Picayune. THE TEXAS SANTA FE EXPEDITION.

Another Interview with the Governor -Removal to a new prison-Anecdote a woman next door- Disfiguring Inston-Description of the Mexican Tomen generally-All of us nearly illed with their kindness.

The next morning we were taken to w quarters in another part of the town ad a small room was provided for our orce to meet him, and that if the Tex- of Spanish origin can imitate. as resisted every one of them would id passed in review before us, and Such a tattered host of mounted scarecrows So hare, so withered, tamished in the march That their executors, the greedy crows, Few hovering o'ertheir heads unpatientf

Their lean inheritance !" fier this we could with difficulty beave that Armejo was not quizzing. hould be well treated by the Alcade ad that all our wants should be provied for, he dismissed us, at the same ne remarking that if one of us atapt to escapo during his absence, would pay the penalty.

We were then taken back to our sarters and a very small guard placover us. The Governor and all his st in the meantime departed in the rection of the great prairie, leaving of more than a dozen or twenty men

The room assigned us a prison was mediately adjoining the church, and at that it was completely overrun the hinches would have been comfortble enough. The guard allowed us set out in front of it, and next door I oon noticed a Mexican woman who at that she had an ugly red mark on l wreteck would have been extremely venty. Two thirds of the women of he place were more or less disfigured y these deep red marks, and as it nevr occurred to us that they could pasbly be put on by their own hands to prove their beauty, as a matter of surse we that nature had dealt unkindwith them and extent which teachnearly every female in the town. he next day it appeared as though he mark on the face of our female eighbor next door had changed its loation. Nota little did we murvel at in for all were sure the spot had been the opposite che-k the previous sy and still we could not believe that sal from childhood: Early on the third sorning she appeared before us with Thee not only exceedingly fair but ery pretty-not a spot or blemish to e discovered. At first we did not reognize her, but on enquireing we found that all these marks had been placed there by herself, the juice of ome red berry having been used for he purpose. We told the Senorat rancesca that she looked much betimaments, and after this she beautified they use vermillion. How they can eration at their unfortunate lot.

wealthy these are made with great neat and has since reached Texas.

To sink or swell as heaven pleases." Mexican female is ever seen withtou men-

THE SOUTHERN ARGUS.

VOL. VIII.

COLUMBUS, MISSISSIPPI, SEPT., 6, 1842.

(NO. LII

PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY MORNING BY SAM. DAVIS, AT FOUR DOLLARS PER ANNUM IN ADVANCE -- OR FIVE WITHIN THE YEAR.

About nine o,clock the Gov- one of them about her. From childmor sent a guard to escort us to his hood this article is worn, and long of the 17th September," continues Lt. guards all around us." at the priest's. On being habit has so accustomed them to its L. "it was determined upon to take up ered about the room. He then asked the fashionables in the larger cities .- hundred yards of us, having received majority of one vote. guestions in relation to Gen. An extremely beautiful ornament it is, further reinforcements, and now num-MeLeod and his party, said that he too, when worn with that peculiar bering about 400 men. We were then was to start immediately with all his grace which none other than the lady dismissed, but with orders to be ready killed. He then spoke of the Mexicau women are their small feet, a party of about 150 or 200 men, adrength of new Mexico, its great re- finely turned ankles, well-developed vancing to our right and rear. This ources, the prowess and daring brave- basts, small and classically formed gave cause for a suspicion of danger, of himself and the resistless soldiers hands, dark and lustrous eyes, with and Col. Cooke immediately ordered ader his command, and drew such hair of that rich and jetty blackness Capt. Sutton to form the men for acadicrous picture and relieved it with peculiar to our own beautiful creole tion. In five minutes battle to the ach a rissue of bombastic fanfaronade girls. Generally their complexions death would have been commencedhat we could hardly keep our gravity. are far from good, being a mixture of but some one exclaimed that Can Hal we not seen the brave soldiers of Spanish and Indian blood, and the Lewis was at the head of the party. from he spoke the thing would have same can be said of their features, al- The order was therefore given to stand een different; but the whole of them though frequently a face may be met at ease; the advancing party uniting in with which might serve as a perfect the meanwhile with the party in our model of beauty. They are joyous front. We then perceived Capt. Lewsociable, kind-hearted creatures almost is advancing towards us, with another universally, liberal to a fault, easy and whom we afterwards ascertained to be naturally graceful in their manners, the nephew of the Governor. Lewis and really appear to have more under- stated to us that the people were exasstanding than the men. Had we fal- perated at our coming, and were in Miguel on their long and dready march Giving special derictions that we len into the hands of the women instead arms-that in addition to the 600 troops to the city of Mexico, we petitioned of the men, our treatment would have before us, he himself had seen 4,000 the Alcalde for a change of quarters. been far different while in New Mex- of the best equipped men he had ever The room we were then occupying,

During our confinement in San in the town, and from the ranchos in the vicinity. Each time they brought Chihuahua, and were expected daily, days the old fellow at length procured We at once kindness we were the victims. One party would arrive with a dish of chilat of the whole population of San by guisado, (stewed mutton strongly seasoned with red pepper, and really excellent when well made.) Scarcely would this party leave us before another would come in, bringing atole and miel, others milk, eggs, tortillas or we were obliged to partake, or else wound the feelings of our kind-hearted friends and the consequence was that we were frequently compelled to swallow a dozen meals a day for the first week or two of our imprisonment. That we did fair justice to the hospitality of the women I am frank to confess, for our previous long starvation had given us most excellent and not easily appeared appetites; but if "enough is as good as a feast," an and old adage says that it is, I can argue from experience that too much, when compelled to eat all that is set before you, is worse even than a brief famine at least when personal comfort is taken into consideration. No slight can be greater than to refuse any eatable proffered by a Mexican girl, and so numerously attended were our levees at San was other than a mark she had car- Miguel that we were frequently employed half the day in paying due honor to our presentations.

Passage of the Texan prisoners through San Miguel-Not allowed to see them-Lt. Lubbock's Statement of the Surrender-Lewis' Agency and Treachery in bringing it about.

On the 17 September Col. Cooke's the 20th they passed through the edge ken from us ! or plain and without these extraneous of San Miguel but we were not allowed to see them. We were informed herself no more. The custom is uni- by the women and our guard that they among the females of New had been stripped of nearly everything Mexico, and when there is no weed or and were badly treated every way, and berry that furnishes a deep red tint the former expressed no little commis-

their appearance is singular enough, and give my readers full particulars of who had ever been considered a man ed that an American merchant named and can only be accounted for upon the the extent of his treachery, I will here of honor-we had his plighted faith Thomas Rowland, a resident of San principle that there is no accounting make a few extracts from an account that we were among friends, and would Miguel had been arrested and his the 9th October our guard informed proved a traitor, especially with the ev-The belles of New Mexico of the surrender of Col. Cooke's party be treated accordingly. Could we, goods confiscated by the Governor .- us that all the Texans had been taken idence before us that neither Col. appear to be ignorant of the apherism written by Lt. Thos. S. Lubbock, who would any one have done otherwise By this time he had received his liber- prisoners near the Laguna Colorado, Cooke's nor Gen. McLeod's party that beauty when unadorned is adorn- was one of the officers and who is also than capitulate upon the terms offered? ty and had re-opened his store. He or Red Lake, a body of water some had fired a gun before surrendering; well known to many in this city. It It is painful to denounce one with passed our prison house regularly ev- twenty or thirty miles south of the An- but they should bear in mind that Lew-The universal dress of the females of may be recollected that Lt. L. made a whom I have associated as a brother ery day, but was not allowed to com- gosturas. The news was immediately is bore an excellent reputation and Mexico is a chemise and blue or red daring and successful escape from the officer and fellow soldier upon a dan- municate with or speak to us. We confirmed by the ringing of bells and was universally esteemed by all, and wollen petticoat, and among the more Convent of Santiago in January last, gerous expedition, one whom I have are indebted to him, however, for many a large procession. The patron saint under these circumstances they will ness and taste. Corsets and frocks It seems that the day after the small are almost unknown among them, and party which I accompanied left the the consequence is their forms obtain sheep-fold on the Gallenas, the main a roundness and fullness that tight la- body took up the line of march and trav-Mexican belles certainly have studied encamped on the edge of a ravine near has the mark upon his forehead; and est looking fellow, but really a very hardly over before Gen. McLeod, Secretainly have studied encamped on the edge of a ravine near looking fellow, but really a very hardly over before Gen. McLeod, Secretainly have studied encamped on the edge of a ravine near looking fellow, but really a very lookin enoras without acknowledging that the small town to purchase provisions, They are made the present time. - and the conference resulted in the lib-They are made of cotton, and serve eration of the men. Col. Cooke then gotten, his plighted masonic taith, which to find Lewis and at the same time re-to seize our arms at a moment's notice. The most striking beauties of the In about fifteen minutes we perceived to us, together with our recruited hor- ent position and future prospects. ses. He further stated that he knew traders visiting Santa Fe, that no pospronoun you instead of we. This arou- or speak to us. sed the suspicions of one of the offi-

for his very countenance foreboded of our guard brought us some stems evil. Col. Cooke went after Lewis from the banks of the river close by, him. On returning he stated that the the weary hours of our captivity. I the correctness of his statements. That | fer it under ordinary circumstances; but party surrendered, on the morning of day our arms and equipments were ta- in a time of affliction and trial, and tute of the very necessaries of life- fortunes, there is more substantial solbroken down physically, and well nigh ace in a good cob pipe, well filled with mentally-250 miles from our com- Virginia tobacco, than in any cigar that

panions, and no means on the route of has been made since the days when supporting nature in an effort to reach |Sir Walter Raleigh commenced smothem; added to all these, we had the king. think these disfiguring marks improve To show Lewis in his true colors, assurance of one of our companions, obsequious manner with which women perform their household duties few hours, and that as an evidence of were then bound four, six and eight her acquaintances! Here we be acted, it was evident enough that encumbered by this garment. An his friendly disposition he would cross together. The cries among the Mex-American lady would as easily manage the river that intervened between our icans during this operation were "kill that after this Don Tom Saying that he had perceived from her affairs with her hands tied behind encampments and encamp near us. As them! Death to the Americans!" At sentially in our estimates appearance and Howland's de- her back as with the rabosa about her, he took up the line of march, our men night Armijo's officers held a consul- nothing to him about pations that we were cavallers or yet it is never in the way of the Mexi- were formed to receive him a la milita- tation, within hearing of the Texans, as was useful in ru to the propriety of either killing them probably took a and his officers to make room for us many respects, but it is made of finer marched, however, entirely around our all or sending them to the City of Mex-money as any the different boxes and trunks scat- material, rather wider, and worn among line, and took his position within two ico. The latter party prevailed by a have done und

> Governor and h rate them all wou well out my ent sketch to an aual length, and T will therefore fin the assertion that from the bays or as Iscariot to those of Benedict Arnold a blacker hearted traitor than W. P. Lewis has not existed.

A Change of Quarters—Arrival of Several Caravans from St. Louis Not allowed to hold Communicati with our Countrymen-A Presi from Mr. McGuffin-Thomas Rou land-Duplicity and Trickery of a Mexican-Arrival of two small parties of Texan Prisoners - Daily procession of the inhabitants.

The day after Col. Cooke and his betrayed comrades passed through San met with before-that they were on the although a good one in every other remarch, and would be on the ground in spect, was so completely overrun with Miguel we were visited by every girl a few hours. He further stated that chinches that it was impossible to sleep five thousand men were marching from by night. After waiting patiently two er men came near being killed with sioned him to say, if we would give up and here we spent our time far more our arms, we would be permitted to agreeably. Our only occupations were come in and trade, and that at the end eating, drinking, sleeping, and specuof eight days they would be returned lating upon our past reverses, our pres-

We had been but a week in our new this to be the custom of the St. Louis | quarters before a caravan arrived from St. Louis, owned by one of the Chasible harm would result from such a vis family, a rich and powerful connexbread. Of all these different dishes course, and for the truth of these state- ion in New Mexico. Three or four ments Lewis pledged his honor. It was days after this another caravan passed observed, during the conference, that through the plaza, composed of Amer-Lewis in his language disconnected icans on their way to California. Not himself from us, using continually the one of them were allowed to call upon

But a few days ar this Mr. Samcers, who proposed that we should re- uel McGuffin, a merchant of Chihuaturn to our companions as we came; hua and an American by birth, arrived and if we could do no better, walk, and | from St. Louis with no less than forty live upon the horses we had left. The waggons heavily laden with goods. nephew of the Governor replied that He sent us word that he had seen the such a course would never do; that Governor at the Rio Pecos, and that his uncle knew Americans were genhe had given him permission to pay us tlemen, and that such inhumanity a visit; but the Alcalde would not alosition, and comply with the requisi- messenger that we need be under no tions made upon all traders visiting apprehension for our lives, and that I cordant. Santa Fe. They then started for their was shortly to be liberated as the Govcamp. While our officers were in con- ernor had nothing against me. From Cooke of the peculiarity he had ob- coffee and tobacco, and after this we saint in the calendar would be called companions would be set free. served in Lewis' conversation, and really lived well. Excellent pipes told him his suspicions were aroused were manufactured out of cobs. One when the mind has no employment "We were among strangers-desti- save to brood over unavoidable mis-

In a former sketch I have mention-

liam P. Lewis betrayed his associates out-door business. His name was hands of the heretics.

of our female visitors remarked that and "honorable" Gov. Armijo was the tion-Houghtaling did the same. That Lt. Lubbock then goes on to state the ring Senora Bustamente had re- poorest they were the possessors of at was the last they saw of their property! that Gov. Armijo arrived the next day, ceived from Mr. Van Ness was a beauthe time of their capture. They were surrounded by his principal offi- wearing them. It is really surprising received from Capt. Salezar, stating and was very much exasperated that tiful present, and that she was so proud all taken to a room on the opposite weeks after this, I saw a copy of La both military and civil, and from the facility with which the Mexican that Gov. Armijo would arrive in a the prisoners were not tied. The men of it she was showing it about among the plaza, and there huddled Luna, a small paper published there.

We had w

of our comrages had were being brought into t ison limit, and saw Lieut Bur- traitorous or unmanly game. the Mexican a want Martias standing room and stated that from whom we had received many fa- called upon us.

to communicate with them. the Angostur of Texans sent on in a powered by xcitement now exis- a mystery to me. ted in San form. This was covered with a satin the expedition, were liberated by Armen, women and children in the place. see them walking at liberty. They dirty blanket tied about him with a us however, in any way. The Govby a couple of performers upon the liberty. bandalon, the latter a species of small | Lewis frequently passed our winthe name of musicians, for they knew although he always bowed as he went but one tune each; and as these tunes by. That the fellow had been acting could not be permitted towards them; low him to see us as he had not brought were entirely different, and were both badly we had now little doubt, but the and again urged us to accept the prop- a written order. He also stated by his played at the same time, it may be well extent of his villany was far from being imagined the sounds were horribly dis- suspected. After dusk of the last men-

September to the 9th of October.

not only in place of bonnets but also asked salezar what had become of Van had been broken; and declared that marked that mark as shawis, veils and work bags. These Ness, Lewis, Howard, Fitzgerald and but for him his former associates would but for him his former associates would be former as a second before the former associates would be former as a second be former as a second before the former as a second before th wear, gracefully, sometimes upon Kendall. He answered by stating that have died in the ditch.—After we have died in the world dispose their pale and wan countenances show most pittful swindling. Two men one their heads, at others over their shoul- he had met them, was satisfied with the ders, and again, again, and again, agai ders, and again round their waists with objects of the mission as explained by every article of personal property was of the mession as explained by every article of personal property was of the avertion, especially to a person ed immensely after we left them on Pa-Frequently the god banging across their arms. - them, had treated them as friends, and the god banker each - who had been sending us so many little lo Duro. The clothing of many of Houghtaling, a merchant, had successively the god banker each - who had been sending us so many little lo Duro. The clothing of many of Houghtaling, a merchant, had successively the god banker each - who had been sending us so many little lo Duro. Frequently the end of the rabosa is sent them on to the Governor. That Mexican female is ever seen withton of pantaloons, and the single blanket of pantaloons of

"About ten o'clock on the morning | there encamped for the night with our | compliments. The next evening one | which had been left them by the brave | gave him his watch with little hesitation most esed and extremely well dressed, been successful in capturing all the We samp to our quarters and took lodg- Texans, he goes on to say : "In conowever, as in the same house in which we sideration of the great services rendererrands, te confined, although in a different ed by Capt. W. P. Lewis, in assisting oll out ofom. Hadan natives wid that " instanced that he e fill a short tim ever, with that and the en and uneasy lo n. We we all remarked. Still we could hard- Governor hired him to claim a large tamente informed us that they had been apparently for him. All the while he name except in praise. taken prisoner by a large party near appeared to be on excellent terms with Of the two Lewis is the most deserd that the main body the Governor and the Mexican officers, ving of general execration. Armijo sidly approaching .-- and was plainly seen and heard laugh- found him a fitting tool to assist in cap-Tuded that the two ing and joking with them. How the turing his former associates, and so far, us some little delicacy to eat, and if ev- but that the Governor had commis- us another room on the public square, small parties wretch could carry out his as the use he made of him goes stands and had been over- villany, and act thus in the very faces guiltless. But his violated faith, broas it were of his betrayed associates, is ken after the most solemn verbal and > ruel. The rumors The distribution of the goods lasted erty and arms of the Texans should be among the pelle were, that the Tex- nearly the whole day, each company preserved and the latter returned to ans were advancing in an immense being paid off out of the plunder accor- them, can never be justified. With bod'y, threatening the country with fire ding to the length of time it had been the hope that they will both receive and sword. A wax figure of the pat- in the service. In the mean time four the full measures of their deserts, and ron saint of the town, San Miguel, to- of the Texans, among them a gun- with the full belief that such will be the gether with a figure of the Virgin, were smith, a black-smith, a musician, and case, I now leave these worthies for carried about, day after day, on a plat- the hospital steward we had along with the present. canopy, and was followed by all the mijo, and from our window we could An old shaven-headed priest, with a were not allowed to communicate with piece of rope, headed the procession ernor wanted the services of these men prayer-book in hand, followed closely | -his only reason for giving them their guitar in very common use in Mexico. dow on the 14th and 15th of the month, will not dignify these fellows with but not once did he offer to speak to us tioned day the nephew of Armijo cal-Every time the procession came in led in to see us. He stated that I was front of our prison it would stop, and to be liberated immediately, and also sultation one of them reminded Col. him we received a generous supply of all would kneel down. Then every gave it as his opinion that my three

upon to aid them against, and protect | The next morning Lewis entered them from, the horde of barbarians and our room. There was a hang-dog exheretics marching toward their coun- pression, if I may so call it, about him try. All would then cross themselves, which denoted that he had committed and held a private conversation with and after this we puffed away many of the band would strike up and the pro- some base action, so much so that he cession move on to some other point could not look one of us in the face. officer must be wrong, for Lewis had will not say that a pipe is better than a again to repeat the ceremony. In this He however tried to convince us that pledged to him his masonic faith for finely flavored Havana, or that I pre- way the time passed from the 17th of he was glad at having the opportunity at least of calling to bid us good bye News of the surrender of Gen. M' Leod's | -said that for some reason the Govparty-The Officers, with Mr. Falcon- ernor had given him his liberty-that I er marched into San Miguel-Arrival was to be let off the next day, and that of the men three days after- Their he would have one more talk with the Miserable Condition-Lewis seen- Governor and try to effect the libera-Our Party receive Flattering News tion of my companions.—After this he -Distribution of the Goods of the hurriedly shook hands, said he was to Texan Merchants-Agency of Lew- start immediately for Santa Fe, and is in this Transaction-a Visit from from that time to this not one of us has Lewis, more of his Rascality, with seen the wretch. It may appear singular, to many of my readers, that we At an early hour in the morning of did not at once suspect that Lewis had looked upon as a man, as a Texan : small favors, and I have little doubt of the town was again mounted on the feel that we must have been slow in har- North Carolina, at different times, mar-'tis painful I say, to denounce any one that he sent us many little luxuries we platform, and as he was carried round boring suspicion against him. It is ried thirteen wives, and a reward was thus situated, as a villian and traitor; never received, through the rascality the plaza the inhabitants returned him hard to suspect one with whom we offered for his apprehension. A person but the facts are too conclusive-Wil- of the Mexicans who executed all our thanks for thus keeping them out of the have long associated on terms of inti- anxious to bring the monster to justice macy-whose life has been unstained enticed him into his house, and pur-Mary seldom allows its votaries. The elled as far as Anton Chico.—They to a cruel and inhuman enemy. He Thomas Bustamente, a specious, hon-

their personal comfort in the costume the town—a strong position in case of the personal counterfeit of an honest man. This fellow and some ten or fifteen the town—a strong position in case of the returned be found that the culprit they have adopted, and no one can tee one of the prettier of the dark-eyed ans, who crossed the river and entered the value of the dark-eyed ans, who crossed the river and entered the dark-eyed ans, who crossed the river and entered the dark-eyed ans, who crossed the river and entered the dark-eyed and no one can all feeling the dark-eyed and the dark-eyed and no one can all feeling the dark-eyed and the dark-eyed and no one can all feeling the dark-eyed and the dark-"Just before dark we were ordered occurred we all really thought him up- pied on the day that Howland and his among them English sovereigns and their personal appearance is also enwere immediately arrested by Captain to form, and then Mexican faith began right in his transactions. Hearing that companions were shot. Although sorlanguage that the small town to purchase provisions, but defice a special companions were shot. Although sorlanguage that the small town to purchase provisions, and then Mexican faith began right in his transactions. Hearing that Moore's beautiful lines to Salezar. The latter immediately de-Nora Creina appear to apply especialby to them, for their dress certainly leaves

Salezar. The latter immediately deto develope itself. While we were spatched one of them back to Col.
Cooke and Dr. Brenham with a request that they would come over to the vilthat they would friend to develope itself. White we were the that they wo that they would come over to the village and hold a consultation with him. large and hold a consultation with him in large and hold a consultation with him. large and hold a consultation with him in large and hold a consultation with him in large and hold a consultation with him in large and hold a consultation with him. large and hold a consultation with him in large and hold a consultation with him in large and hold a consultation with him. large and hold a consultation with him in large and hold a co The rabosa, is a species of searf, back word to Salezar that if he wished he had any soul at all must have been had despatched the fellow he sent a communicate with them in any way, searched and robbed by Armijo, to get something like those worn by our fash- to see them he must come to their camp. The reminded him of his valuable ladies at all the reminded him of his part that they never some their camp.

Santa Fe he called upon them and sta-ted that he would take their watches and sell them for a heavy sum. He said they would need the money or the road, and that it would be impossible for them to dispose of the watches after leaving San Miguel ; but on the contrary would lose them if the Mexicans should by chance discover them about their persons. Farley was an intimate friend of the scoundrel and many sheep in a butcher's It contained a letter from Armijo to Garcia Conde, Governor of Chihuano the same day Capt. Lewis, well hua, in which after stating that he had to us as he passed, me to capture these Texans, I have t," and remark- given him his liberty and his goods, and see us in and earnestly recommend him to the ed, how- notice of the Central Government!" bromise, When it is known that all the goods sneaking Lewis had along he could carry in his refellow which hat, it is more than probable that the ed out into a porch, hich was ly believe that he had been playing a portion of the merchandize, which he afterwards divided with him, and thus gess and Scott, John C. Howard, and That night Bustamente ca our defrauded the Government to which mrticu- he was obliged to render an account of in front of the ade's on the oppolar was to be receast governor, all the spoils taken. This Armijo is steered of the aza. They were so soon as all the prisoners had been known to have commenced life as a mediately sent to a small village sent off towards Mexico, and that from stealer of sheep. From this he turned with a kind-heart to dealing monte, a Mexican game re-Antonio Vacca, who had previously would also obtain their liberty. His ambitious man, he learned to read and called upon us with provisions and story was corroborated by others who write, and a revolution which occurred a few years since in New Mexico vors. Much as we wished to converse The next morning the waggons con- placed him at the head of affairs - a with our companions we were unable taining the goods of the merchants were position which he has since retained by drawn into the public square, and the cunning, artifice, and by keeping the A day or two after this Capt. Cald- merchandize was taken out and dis- people completely under by his overwell and nine Texans were taken pris- tributed among the different Mexican bearing and tyrannical measures. The oners The quartered a short regiments. Lewis was standing by the least offence against him is punished the residence of waggons with the Governor, and fre- with instant death, and in such are the , the man who sa- quently pointed out a box or bale of inhabitants kept of this modern Nero first taken. Bus- goods which was placed in a large pile that they are afraid to mention even his written assurances that the lives, prop-

NOTHING TRUE BUT HEAVEN. The faithless worlds promiscuous show, Allured by fancy's vision; The smiles of joy, the tears of wo,; Deceitful shine, deceitful flow, There's nothing true but Iteaven.

Fine gold will change, and diamonds fade, Swift wings to wealth are given: All-varying times our forms invade, The seasons roll, light sinks in shade, There's nothing firm but heaven.

Creations mighty fabric all, Will be to atoms riven, The stars disperse, the planets fall, Convulsions rock this earthly ball, There's nothing lasts but Heaven.

Empires decay and nations die, Our hopes to winds are given, The vernal bloom in ruin lies, Death reigns o'er all below the skies, There's nothing lives but Heaven.

The world is poor from shore to shore, And like a baseless vision, Its lofty domer, and shining ore, And glittering gems are mean and poor, There's nothing rich but Heaven

A stranger in this world unknown, From place to place, I'm driven, My friends are gone and I'm in gloom, And swiftly passing to the tomb, To find a home in Heaven.

Time's lading glories disappear, Like changing hues of evening, Tripmpliant grace has quell'd my fears, Roll on ye suns, ffly swift ye years, And bring me safe to Heaven.

Adieu, all earthly things adieu, My sins are all forgiven, The charms of Christ have caught my view, And on to glory I'll pursue, To find a home in Heaven.

Downright Bigamy-A man in he could procure a constable. When

DAIMOND CUT DAIMOND

A lawyer quite famous for making a bill, And who in good liquor delighted, To dinner one day, with a hearty good will, Was by a rich client invited; But he charged six and eight pence for going to

One a crown, and the other a guinea-But gossips, you know, have a saying in store, "He who matches a lawyer has only one The lawyer paid the money and took a re-

While the client stared at him in wonder;
And gave to his friends with the produce a But the lawyer soon made him knock under, That his chent sold wine information be laid. Without license, in spite of his storming;